Zac Quin is Top Tiger for 2025

Zac Quin is presented with the Keith Beavis Trophy by Club President Cam Shaw with Coaches Jeremy Watts and Jack Gartlan.

The Mayne Tigers held their Annual Presentation Night at the Tattersalls Club in Queen Street, Brisbane last night for the third year with a who's who of the true believers in attendance for the last Gala event of the season.

It was one of the biggest turnouts for this event in years with everyone toasting the wonderful successes of the 2025 season including the Senior Back to Back Premiership.

The night commenced with President Cam Shaw providing a detailed report and wrap on the many highlights of the year while he thanked the many volunteers and contributors who made the year another success. This included his hard working Committee, the Coaches, Assistant Coaches and Managers for all the grades as well as the Team Support staff, the Canteen and Bar volunteers, people who ran events and the many people who managed the wide variety of jobs on game day.

The nights agenda included formal recognition of volunteers, the awarding of the Jack Kennedy Club Person

GARDNER VAUGHAN
GROUP

Gardner Vaughan Group is the MAJOR SPONSOR of the Mayne Tigers in 2025.

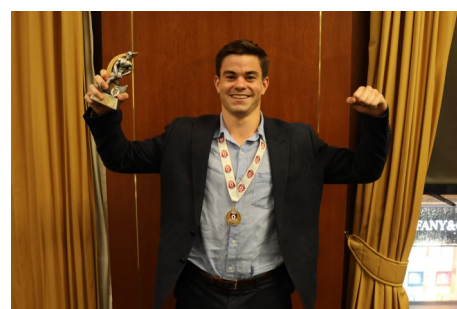

We thank Guy Gardner and all the team at Gardner Vaughan Group for their ongoing support and dedication to the Mayne Tigers Football Club.

Zac McLean is awarded the Andrew Housego Runner Up Best and Fairest in the Senior team.

Jack Collings wins the Senior Grade Third Best and Fairest.

Louis Quin wins the Senior Grade Best in Finals and the Coaches Award.

of the Year, recognition of Milestone players, new Hall of Fame Inductees and two new Life Members.

It was then on to the various team awards led by Coaches providing their wrap on the their team's season.

The biggest award of the evening was the Keith Beavis Best and Fairest in the Senior Grade which was won by Zac Quin for another stellar season where he not only kicked 63 goals, he was a powerhouse in the middle when required as well as filling critical roles when the need required. Coaches Jack Gartlan and Jeremy Watts paid tribute to the young star for his dedication to the task and his club.

Quin gave a great speech in response recognising his coaches for their planning and organisation and the way they have managed the last two seasons.

He also recognised all his team mates and urged everyone to go around again to keep the momentum going.

Zac McLean was judged Runner Up Best and Fairest for another wonderful season. After relinquishing the Captain's role due to family commitments, he still continued on as a wonderful club leader on and off the field and was rightly recognised for his efforts. He was also awarded Life Membership for his many years of service to the club.

Multiple Club Champion Jack Collings took out the Third Best and Fairest for the second year in a row proving that he can still achieve a high poll result after another great year including a very influential game in the Grand Final.

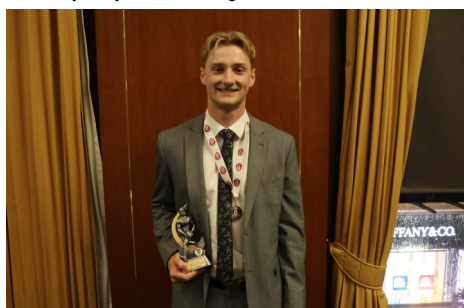

Ryan Doolan was voted the Mick Nolan Player's Player as well as Most Consistent for his dominant season winning the League Goal Kicking. He was recognised by the Coaching Staff for his leadership after taking over the Captaincy when Daniel Schmidt was ruled out for the season. Possibly the youngest ever Tiger Captain to lead his side to a Premiership.

Andy Tydink is awarded the Graham Walters Best and Fairest in the Reserve Grade by Graeme Wallace with Danny Evans and Shane Fry.

Louis Quin was awarded Best in Finals also taking out the Coaches Award for his season. He arrived at pre-season in super shape after being away in the 2024 and missing that premiership showing how determined he was to make sure the club saluted again in 2025.

Duncan McCabe took out the Everton District Sporting Club Award as the local Rising Star while Daniel Schmidt was awarded the Best Team Player for his work in and around the team including coaching the seniors and reserves, as well as his efforts on the Club Committee and work running events and functions.

Ryan Doolan won the Mick Nolan Players Player and the Most Consistent Award in the Senior Grade.

Duncan McCabe won the Everton Award for the Rising Star in the Senior Grade.

Tom Eccleston won the Runner Up Best and Fairest in the Reserve Grade.

Sandy Valentine won the Most Consistent in the Reserve Grade.

Reserve Grade Awards

In a very popular result, Andy Tydink was awarded the Graham Walters Best and Fairest in the Reserve Grade for another rock solid performance leading the Tigers defence. He also took out the Peter Ives Players Player in a comprehensive sweep of the Reserve Grade major awards.

Sam Craigie won the Best Team Player for the Reserve Grade.

Tom Eccleston was adjudged the Runner Up Best and Fairest for his impressive season which was hampered once again by injury. If this lad can complete a full season there is no telling what he can achieve in the senior squad.

Sandy Valentine was awarded the Most Consistent for his strong performance in defence with Coaches Danny Evans and Shane Fry both extolling his potential to take a place in the senior team.

Josh Geurts won the Best in Finals trophy in the Reserve Grade.

Cooper Westerhuis won the John Laing Best and Fairest in the Third Grade.

Sam Craigie was recognised for his hard work and willingness to do whatever is required with the Best Team Player Award while Campbell Antonio was awarded the Most Improved Award for his fast development from a zero base in AFL to playing a number of games in the seniors.

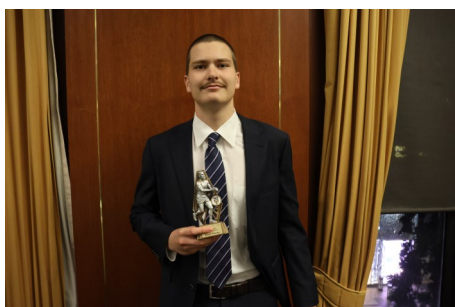

George Hiotis was awarded the Best First Year Player, Lachlan Settle the Coaches Award and Josh Geurts was the player adjudged Best in Finals rounding out the awards for the Reserves.

Dan Cook won the Runner Up Best and Fairest in the Third Grade.

Third Grade Awards

Coaches Murray Laing and Jake Magill gave a glowing report on the Thirds year with the team making the finals for the first time since 2017.

James Mulcahy won the Most Consistent in the Third Grade.

The John Laing Best and Fairest Award went to a very deserving Cooper Westerhuis who dominated the middle of the ground and the Tigers attack all season. He also won the Best in Finals Award in recognition of a great season. He was able to play a number of games in the Reserves including their finals game.

Dan Cook took out the Runner Up Best and Fairest Award as well as the Player's Player Award for his players and supporters that made the year so enjoyable and one which brought many highlights.

The Glenda Barber Best and Fairest Award was hotly contested this year with Dakodah Cott and Zoe Bourne sharing the votes to be joint winners in a much deserved result. Glenda presented the Trophy to the ladies and gave another heartfelt address to the Tiger faithful.

Rhi Meehan took out the Runner Up Best and Fairest Award for another strong year of performances. She also ticked over her 50th game.

Amelia Weddel was awarded the Most Consistent in the Womens Grade.

Amelia Weddell took out the Most Consistent Award in another solid performance. Amelia also achieved her 50th game and was a very important member of the Tigers Committee.

Amber Prout took out the Most Improved. Assistant Coach Kyle Henry gave Amber a glowing report card for her work in defence.

Jorja and Mykaela Rolls were both awarded Rising Star Awards for their work in defence in their first year coming to AFL from soccer.

Amber Prout was awarded the Most Improved in the Womens Grade.

Meg Johnstone was presented with the Coaches Award for her team oriented season.

The Womens team finished the year strongly and will be very keen to build on this momentum in 2026.

Volunteer Awards

Marc Craigie was awarded the Jack Kennedy Club Person of the Year.

Club President Cam Shaw and Vice President Russell Ditchburn presented the all important Volunteer, Milestone, Hall of Fame and Life Member Awards paying tribute to the great efforts of so many Tigers in 2025.

Team Manager Marc Craigie was awarded the much loved Jack Kennedy Club Person of the Year for his selfless efforts for the senior teams as well as numerous other activities performed throughout the year.

Daniel Schmidt was awarded Committee Person of the year for his work running functions, arranging rosters for the BCH Raffles as well as his work supporting all the teams.

Kyle Henry and Gus Shaw were awarded Team Support Person of the Year for their work supporting the Women's team as well as their efforts for the other teams.

Haydn Petersen was awarded Match Day Support Person for his role helping the teams on Saturday after being ruled out with injury this year.

Tom Hughes was awarded Coach of the Year for his impressive efforts with the Women's team.

New Life Members

Danny Evans was awarded Life Membership at the Annual Presentation Night.

The club awarded Life Membership to two worthy players in Danny Evans and Zac McLean.

Both players have played over 150 games for the club as well as performing coaching and leadership roles.

Hall of Fame Inductees 2025

Campbell Corser was inducted into the Mayne Tigers Hall of Fame.

The club inducted seven new Hall of Fame Members as follows.

Campbell Corser, Jeremy Watts, Brent McArdle, Zac Quin, Tony Stevens, Jordan Cabot and Tim Lyons.

Milestone Recognition

The club also recognised Danny Evans for his 150 games in Reserve Grade and Scott Forrester for his 100th Reserve Grade game.

Danny Evans has also played 69 senior games.

A detailed acknowledgement of each player was published earlier in the year to commemorate each of their individual circumstances.

Scott Forrester was recognised for his 100 games in Reserve Grade.
