Tigers roar into 2022 to defeat Premiers

The Tigers were desperate in defence yesterday against the reigning premiers Springwood as Seb Miletic flies over the top to effect a strong spoil.

The Mayne Tigers kicked their 2022 campaign off with a resounding win over the reigning premiers Springwood at the Den with a seven goal buffer at the end of the day,

The Tigers welcomed nine debutants into the side for the opening game in a rare occasion with several key players unavailable due to Covid and injury.

Despite almost half the side being new to the group, they didn't take long to get into stride to show the Tigers will be in the mix again this season.

It was once again the Zac Quin show as he had the ball on a string at times to easily be the best player on the ground. Quin came in for plenty of attention but there was no stopping him as he accumulated possessions at will to get the Tigers going all day.

Zac McLean was a shining light for the Tigers leading from the front as the Acting Captain as he also constructed a powerful game while Ryan Eyles was his rugged in and under performer.

The first quarter was a fast and tight affair with plenty of hard work being undertaken by both sides and with neither able to hold the footy in their forward line with defence a highlight of the term. The Tigers big men department was led by Daniel Schmidt around the ground with his marking as well as his groundwork a feature all day.

The Pumas were without some of their regular prime movers with Rhan Hooper making a rare appearance in the Reserves while Jordan Bain and Greg Friis were away on home duties but the Tigers were focused on the job at hand. The Tigers stepped up a gear in the second term as their small forwards got into the game with some strong defensive work to keep the ball locked in their half. Cody Caught and Casey Barber were working overtime while

GROUP

Gardner Vaughan Group is the MAJOR SPONSOR of the Mayne Tigers in 2021.

We thank Guy Gardner and all the team at Gardner Vaughan Group for their ongoing support and dedication to the Mayne Tigers Football Club.

Zac Quin leaves everyone in his wake as he drives the Tigers forward against the Pumas yesterday at the Den.

Josh Westerberg provided a tall target and a strong frame to create plenty of contests.

The Tigers men's department for 2022 has been bolstered with the arrival of Jimmy Aganas and Seb Miletic who both provided strong spoiling as well as rebound and will be sure to provide a strong base for the team's prospects.

The Tigers extended their lead through the second half and were never headed as they solidified their game plan to dominate the day.

Henry Leong provided a strong target up front over the course of the game to show the way for the Tigers as he continues to enjoy his return to the Den. Leong took several strong marks as well as breaking lines with his strong physique.

Zac McLean on the attack again as he led from the front yesterday for the Tigers against the Springwood Pumas.

The Tigers small men enjoyed plenty of ball with speedster Jack Coghlan taking full advantage in his customary fashion.

The Tigers finished strongly to run out worthy winners and will look forward to another home game next week at the Den against the University of Queensland.

Scores: Mayne 12.14.86 d Springwood 6.6.42
Goals: J Gartlan 3, H Leong 2, Z Quin, J McVeigh, C Caught, Z McLean, S Miletic, T Fry, C Fletcher 1
Best: Z Quin, Z McLean, J Coghlan, D Schmidt, H Leong, R Eyles.

Henry Leong takes a strong mark in the Tigers forward fifty under plenty of pressure from Springwood's Rowan Page at the Den yesterday..

Resgies too strong for Pumas

The Reserves fielded a very strong side with a range of experience and youth once again to evidence the depth available to the coaching group in 2022.

While the Pumas fielded a rare appearance of ex AFL star Rhan Hooper as a feature, the Tigers went about their business to accumulate a big score.

Apart from a fightback in the third term the Pumas were unable to match the rampant Tigers.

Ryan Doolan put on a clinic up front to kick six goals and take some strong marks despite the best efforts of the Puma defence. Doolan will be just one of the many young Tigers pressing for a senior spot as the pressure mounts on everyone to retain their positions.

Danny Evans looks to attack for the Tigers as he receives plenty of support from Nick Galvin against the Springwood Reserves yesterday at the Den.

It was vintage Danny Evans as he dominated the middle of the ground with Nick Galvin providing a similar strong effort to support Evans as they worked beautifully together.

Gus Shaw leaps into action for the Tigers Reserves against the Springwood Pumas yesterday at the Den.

Kyle Henry was strong around the ground while Gus Shaw dominated the ruck with his high flying exploits.

The Tigers backline was almost impenetrable with the Captain Stew Settle sweeping to perfection while Andy Tydink was also strong in support.

Evergreen Jake Magill was creative up front for the Tigers while Digby Morison provided another young target in a mature display.

Captain Stew Settle has the defence under control for the Tigers against the Springwood Pumas yesterday at the Den.

MAYNE FOOTBALL CLUB

The Mayne Tigers thank Altogether Group for their Sponsorship of the Women's Team in 2022

At Altogether, we're championing better ways of using, producing and thinking about power, water and data.

Best: D Evans, H Leong, S Settle, G Shaw, S Doolan, J Magill.

Women's Team enjoy hit out with Sandgate

Belinda Turner gets her handball away for the Tigers in their Practice Match against Sandgate yesterday at the Den.

The Women's team enjoyed their first hit out for 2022 in a Practice Match with the Sandgate Seahawks at the Den in the late game.

The Tigers debuted several new players with an experienced Belinda Turner showing she will be a dangerous weapon for the team this year. Turner's attack on the ball and her strong tackling were a feature yesterday.

It was good to see Emily Bowden back in good form after an injury shortened 2021 season. Bowden was strong around the ground and as always creative in front of the goals while Kara Schooley Proud was busy all day getting plenty of possessions.

Kara Schooley Proud looks to create an opportunity for the Tigers yesterday at the Den against the Sandgate Seahawks.

Rhianna Meehan showed she will be very handy this year in a strong opening game while the youngsters Dakodah Cott and Grace Mahoney were livewires for the Tigers.

The team will play their opening fixture on the 23rd April against Pine Rivers at Pine Rivers.

There are still spots available to join the Tigers Women's team. Enquiries from new prospects can be made on our Facebook page or by email to president@maynetigers.com.au

Nine on Debut

A father son affair as former Tiger Shane Fry presents jerseys to his sons Hayden and Tom on their debut for the Tigers yesterday at the Den.

The Tigers welcomed nine new players into the Senior team yesterday in a very rare occurrence for the club.

There was plenty of excitement around the debut of brothers Hayden and Tom Fry, sons of former player Shane Fry. Hayden is just seventeen and Tom a raw fifteen year old.

It was also great to see the return of James Stolz and Zac Puncken to the Den, both former Everton Wolves. Jimmy Aganas made his debut for the Tigers on the back of a very decorated career in the NEAFL at Aspley and Wilston Grange while Seb Miletic joined the Tigers from the Macedon Football Club in the Riddell League.

Josh Westerberg and Chris Fletcher also joined the Tigers from the Coolangatta Football Club adding some valuable size and experience to the group.

Joe McVeigh comes in as a tall forward from the Hermit Park Tigers in Townsville to complete a quality group.
