Tigers go down to Kings in Anzac Day Game nailbiter

Zac Puncken gets the Tigers into attack in another classy display against the Coorparoo Kings yesterday at Giffin Park.

The Annual Anzac Day clash held yesterday at Giffin Park between the two famous clubs of Mayne and Coorparoo was once again a fiercely contested game and a credit to all the players that represented each club. It was also played with appropriate sportsmanship fitting of such an important day on the country's calendar.

The game was alive until the last second with Coorparoo just hanging on to claim a two point victory after both sides went goal for goal throughout the last quarter.

The Tigers got off to a slow start having to defend grimly for most of the first quarter before mounting some important raids to be within four points of the Kings at the end of the term. The Tigers missed several opportunities to take the lead due to inaccurate kicking.

Zac Puncken once again showed just what he is capable of with a classy display of skills seizing every opportunity that came his way to keep the Tigers scoreboard ticking over finishing with three goals.

The weather had been threatening all day with light rain but the second term saw a howling south easter blow up to create a multi goal advantage to the northern end which the Kings took full advantage. The Kings broke out to a four goal lead at the main break with some of their best footy. The Kings Campbell Leurs was a standout with some long range goals including two in the last term to finish off some good running movements from end to end. Shayle Korander was also fleet of foot once again for the Kings while Dean Gavin was the Kings best on the day.

The Tigers needed to claw back that lead in the third term and hopefully take advantage but the weather gods were not on their side as the breeze settled. However it was still the scoring end and the Tigers proceeded to pepper the goals to get back to trailing by just three points.

We thank Guy Gardner and all the team at Gardner Vaughan Group for their ongoing support and dedication to the Mayne Tigers Football Club.

Jack Coghlan shows a clean pair of heels out of the middle to get the Tigers going against the Coorparoo Kings at Giffin Park yesterday.

The Tigers backline was severely depleted by the absence of Jimmy Aganas and Dean Hartley but the experience of Ryan Eyles held the young Tigers together to be a standout. The Tigers held the Kings to just two points for the term to set up a great finish.

Once again the Tigers could rely on big man Dan Schmidt who did a power of work in the ruck but pushed back to help out in the last line as well as be a target when resting up forward.

Tom Fry continues his exciting debut with his third game in the black and gold even better than the previous two as he continues to solidify his position in first grade.

Tom Fry looks to get the Tigers out of trouble against the Coorparoo Kings at Giffin Park yesterday.

The Tigers Captain Zac McLean led from the front all day with an inspiring game while Jack Coghlan was dynamic through the middle of the ground.

The scene was set for an exciting finish and that is what the crowd got for their money with the Tigers gaining a five point lead only to see the Kings strike a quick retort to go one point up again and again. The two teams scored three goals apiece with Coorparoo claiming the lead back with seconds to go to win by two points in a classic finish.

Dean Gavin was awarded the Wayne Stewart Medal in the closing ceremony for the day in what was another great Anzac Day tribute game.

Dan Schmidt gets the Tigers out of their defensive zone yesterday against the Coorparoo Kings.

Ressies break Kings Hoodoo

The Reserves took their revenge on the Coorparoo Kings yesterday in the grand final rematch. The Kings had the wood on the Tigers for all of the 2021 season but it was a sweet victory for them yesterday holding on to win by a goal as the Kings surged to kick a goal on the siren.

It was another dour, close fought game with neither side giving an inch. The tackling was fierce with neither side allowing the other to get a break until the Tigers burst through with two successive goals in the final moments of the third term to claim a handy two goal lead.

Tim Webb was strong for the Tigers while Tom Barr impressed in his first game. Kyle Henry was everywhere while taking most of the rucks and crashing the packs around the ground.

Jackson Olley sets a determined pose in defence for the Tigers Reserves against the Coorparoo Kings yesterday at Giffin Park.

The Tigers held the footy in their forward line for most of the last term with some impressive forward pressure to stifle any chance of the Kings getting on top again.

The Tigers retain equal top spot on the ladder and will be keen to hold on to it.

Scores: Mayne 7.7.49 d Coorparoo 5.13.43
Goals: X Craven, S Doolan, C Massingham 2, T Barr 1.

The Mayne Tigers thank the Beavis and Bartels Families for their Sponsorship of Zac McLean in 2022

There are few names more synonymous with the Mayne Football Club than Beavis and Bartels. Keith Beavis and Carl Bartels were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Mayne Sporting Club in 1973 through their generosity and foresight. The club rooms and facilities constructed at Windsor Park were the best in Brisbane for their era and stood proud for the Tigers for 25 years. Beavis and Bartels Plumbing employed countless Mayne players and sponsored the Tigers for decades.

Keith was also long term President and Patron of the club.

The name continues on today through the Sponsorship provided by Brian Bartels and Greg Beavis and their respective families.

Panthers too slick for the Thirds

The Thirds took to the field for the first time for 2022 on Friday night against the reigning Premiers Morningside who have lost none of their impressive ability in the off season.

The Panthers have a classy lineup led by former Tiger Eddie Mallan who has played at NEAFL and QAFL level for his entire career until now. He is joined by a host of tall, strong and capable talent to make them the front runners again in 2022.

The Tigers have plenty of new talent vying for a chance to impress and will give it their all.

Sam Johnman made an impressive debut for the Tigers while Campbell Austin was busy all night.

The Tigers travel to Jimboomba next Friday night to get one of the more difficult road trips out the way early in the season.

Goals: N Appleby 1.
Best: S Johnman, C Austin, J Edwards, L Mulcahy, T Stevens.

Women's Team go down to Swans

The Tiger Women had their first official hit out last night against the Pine Rivers Swans at Pine Rivers.

The Swans are a seasoned group who will expect to figure prominently in proceedings as the season rolls on but the Tigers showed they will be capable of challenging the best as they gather more experience and gel together.

Tigers Captain Maegan Dick led from the front with a handy game while other new recruits Elka Rigby and Dakodah Cott also gave the Tigers plenty to cheer about.

Hannah Smith kept up where she left off in 2021 to play a prominent game for the Tigers as well.

Team Leaders elected for 2022 were Maegan Dick, Kara Schooley Proud and Molly Nelson.

Scores: Pine Rivers 4.10.34 d Mayne 0.2.2
Goals: Nil.
Best: M Dick, E Rigby, H Smith, Dakodah Cott, Erin Eldon, Molly Nelson.
