Daniel Schmidt gives the Tigers first use of the footy again against the Wynnum Vikings at the Den yesterday.

The Tigers are back on the winners list this week after a strong performance against one of the new teams on the block, the Wynnum Vikings yesterday.

The Tigers were desperate to return to winning form after two very narrow losses in the previous two weeks. Despite the Vikings being significantly down on personnel with injuries and absences the Tigers were ruthless in their effort to win the match.

The competition has been intense so far with no club able to stand out above their peers and while the scoreline yesterday looked like the Tigers had it all their own way the Vikings put up a strong fight but didn't have the finish to nail the scoreboard.

The Tigers started strongly but were inaccurate for the first term to leave the door still open for the Vikings taking just a three goal lead despite nine scoring shots.

Once again the Tigers were well led by Captain Zac McLean who has taken his new role on with considerable maturity and effort. McLean inserted himself into all ends of the ground supporting and directing his troops to perfection.

Daniel Schmidt was unstoppable in the ruck but it was his endurance and work rate to push back deep into defence which was a particular feature. Schmidt continues to develop every week as a key driver for the Tigers.

The Tigers kicked right into gear in the second term straightening up to extend their lead to seven goals at the main break with Seb Miletic getting on the end of numerous raids. He ended up with six for the game but could have managed double figures had he tuned the radar a bit earlier.

The Tigers backline was almost impenetrable with Jordan Morrison showing the way while the experience of Dean

GARDNER VAUGHAN
GROUP

Gardner Vaughan Group is the MAJOR SPONSOR of the Mayne Tigers in 2021.

We thank Guy Gardner and all the team at Gardner Vaughan Group for their ongoing support and dedication to the Mayne Tigers Football Club.

Zac Quin in typical fashion eludes his opponent to get the Tigers into attack against the Wynnum Vikings at the Den yesterday.

Hartley continues to give the Tigers a composed disposition all round.

Around the middle Sam Threlfall is revelling in his leadership role providing in and under hard work as well as strong voice and direction.

The Quin brothers dominated around the stoppages to get the Tigers going with their pace and daring a feature as usual.

The third quarter was more of the same as the Tigers kicked away with another four goal to nil effort on the back of dour defence and hard work across the middle of the ground.

Young Hayden Fry showed plenty of courage and his growing confidence as he took relieving duties in the ruck. He continues to demonstrate enthusiasm and raw talent beyond his years to be another big find for the Tigers in 2022.

The Tigers ran the game out in greasy conditions to be worthy winners in another entertaining game. They will be looking to get off the chain again next week against the other new contenders of the competition Moreton Bay who have started their season in fine form. The game will be held at Moreton Bay and shapes as yet another game that has to be won by both sides to keep their seasons on track.

Scores: Mayne 13.15.93 d Wynnum 2.8.20
Goals: S Miletic 6, H Leong 2, C Barber, S Threlfall, T Webb, H Fry, Z Quin 1
Best: D Schmidt, Z Quin, S Threlfall, H Fry, L Quin, J Morrison

Ressies too strong for Vikings

The Tigers Reserves were also keen to get back on the winners podium after losing a tight contest to Caloundra last week and they did so in emphatic fashion against an undermanned Wynnum Vikings.

The Vikings have had a shocking run of injuries to start their inaugural Division 1 season but were pleased to be able to call upon some veterans to ensure they fielded a full side.

The Tigers withstood an early fight from the Vikings to ease away to a two goal lead at the first break before piling on two six goal quarters to take the game completely under control.

Corey Massingham was on the end of a stream of centre breaks to kick five goals in a vintage performance while Xavier Craven helped himself to four in a zippy display.

Justin Moritz gets his kick away for the Ressies against the Wynnum Vikings at the Den yesterday.

The Tigers backline was impossible to breach with Jackson Olley and Andy Tydink spoiling and marking to perfection while Tom Barr was providing pace, run and carry to launch off the half backline.

Danny Evans was in vintage form around the middle while Kyle Henry was rucking and then roving his own ball to give the Tigers constant attack. Seb Shaw continues to expand his game with his composure around the rucks as well as his strong tackling being a feature of his game.

The Tigers accumulated a big total which will be important with a logjam at the top of the ladder at the moment. They will be keen to keep the momentum going next week against the Moreton Bay Lions.

Scores: Mayne 19.9.123 d Wynnum 2.2.14
Goals: C Massingham 5, X Craven 4, D Evans, D Athanasellis, P Glass 2, J Magill, H Petersen, S Shaw, J Martin 1.
Best: T Barr, D Evans, J Moritz, C Massingham, K Henry, S Shaw.

Magpies fly home against Thirds

The Thirds started their game against powerhouse club the Sherwood Magpies in good style but were unable to sustain the pressure for the entire game.

The Magpies relentless effort and skill took its toll in the end for the Tigers but there continues to be improvement each week for this largely new group.

Sam Cox once again showed his experience around the ground as he did his best to spark the Tigers while Lachie McCormack was strong across half forward.

Nathan Appleby kicked two fine goals for the Tigers to be in the best in a classy display while down back Brent McArdle was in vintage form.

The Tigers take on Collingwood Park away next week in another tough game.

Scores: Sherwood 13.8.86 d Mayne 3.2.20
Goals: N Appleby 2, J Doyle 1.
Best: S Cox, L McCormack, N Appleby, C Antonio, B Lewis, B McArdle.

Tigers let one slip against the Bombers

The Tiger girls did everything last night except win the game in an exciting and entertaining end to end affair against the Alexandra Hills Bombers.

The Tigers will rue this loss as it was there to be won after a strong start saw them leaving the Bombers scoreless at the first break.

There was plenty of run from Lexie Baker who is taking to her newly adopted game with aplomb while Captain Maegan Dick was very creative.

Grace Mahoney marked strongly and defenced grimly for the entire night while Dakodah Cott showed her usual pace to give the Tigers plenty of run.

Unfortunately the Bombers were able to sneak ahead by half time and the second half was a very dour affair with neither side able to challenge the scoreboard.

Scores: Alexandra Hills 2.3.15 d Mayne 1.6.12
Goals: R Meehan 1.
Best: G Mahoney, M Dick, A Baker, D Cott, E Eldin, K Schooley Proud.

Volunteer Army

Well done again to everyone that took on a role yesterday, it was a big home effort across the park. Special mention to Tom Aitcheson as the Ressies permanent runner as club person of the weekend..
