Tigers finish strong after epic battle with Blues

Tex Korewha takes the mark of the week for the Tigers against the Hinterland Blues at Palmwoods yesterday.

The Tigers travelled to Palmwoods to take on the Hinterland Blues in the penultimate game of the season for the QFA Division 1 competition. The Tigers handed out a one hundred point pounding to the Blues in the last time they met at the Den, however the home team has regrouped well since then as they continue to improve under new coaching mentorship while the Tigers have been challenged every week since the last time these two sides met.

The Blues are always a much different proposition on their home deck and so it was yesterday as they stormed out of the blocks to open proceedings against a stunned Tiger group.

The Blues dominated centre clearance to put the Tigers defence under immense pressure with the footy coming in hot and frequent. The Blues Will Harper was quick to take advantage with two strong marks in a matter of moments which he capitalised on to maximum effect with big accurate goals.

The Tigers responded with a goal to their spearhead Ryan Doolan but the onslaught wasn't over with the Blues kicking another four in succession to four different goal kickers. The Blues have always been able to score quickly but their consistency has let them down at times but this was impressive giving the Tigers plenty to do to bring the game back under control.

The Tigers did regain the ascendancy with Jamie Ivers getting on top of the Blues big men while Duncan McCabe, Zac Puncken and Louis Quin gaining some opportunities in the middle. Doolan with another goal and Zac Quin with two goals were able to steady the ship to bring the very high scoring opening term to a close with the Blues one goal the better as everyone took a breath.

The second term was a fascinating arm wrestle as both sides looked to gain some ascendancy but the Blues were once again able to take the honours as they increased the margin to two goals and a fair amount of the momentum.

GARDNER VAUGHAN

GROUP

Gardner Vaughan Group is the MAJOR SPONSOR of the Mayne Tigers in 2025.

We thank Guy Gardner and all the team at Gardner Vaughan Group for their ongoing support and dedication to the Mayne Tigers Football Club.

Jamie Ivers wins the ruck for the Tigers yesterday against the Hinterland Blues at Palmwoods.

The Blues were winning in the air with their big men working hard all around the ground but the Tigers were still well in the game with the experienced Zac McLean and Jack Collings doing all they could to manage this tight contest. Kyle Henry and the Blues Captain Tom Wischnat were having another classic battle like numerous others around the ground.

The Tigers have not been challenged very often this season so this game was providing a glimpse of the finals series to come.

The third term was more of the same as the Blues edged a further goal ahead in an enthralling period. The highlight of the term was a spectacular mark to Tex Korewha which had everyone talking.

It was do or die at the final break with the Tigers back well and truly against the wall and the Blues tails in the air.

Zac Quin was moved into the middle as a change to normal programming and the effect was immediate as the Tigers took control of the last term. Zac McLean showed once again the big game player that he is reprising some of his 2024 grand final tricks to get the forward line up and going. The Tigers kicked six goals to one in the last term to break the hearts of the local team who were stunned to have lost a game they had dominated for three quarters.

The Tigers were very pleased to be able to recover in the way they did, but are very much aware that the finals series is now wide open. The Springwood Pumas pipped the UQ Red Lions yesterday to further highlight the excitement to come this September.

Scores: Mayne 15.9.99 d Hinterland 13.12.90
Goals: Zac McLean 6, Zac Quin, Ryan Doolan, Duncan McCabe 2, Nick Galvin, Louis Quin, Cody Caught 1.
Best: Jamie Ivers, Zac Quin, Zac McLean, James Stolz, Duncan McCabe, Nick Galvin.

Ressies qualify for finals again

Danny Evans takes a strong mark for the Tigers against the Hinterland Blues yesterday at Palmwoods.

The Tigers took on the Hinterland Blues in the early game desperate for a win to secure their place in the 2025 finals series.

They got off to a strong start dominating field position with the ball camped in the Tigers forward line however both teams had their full personnel in that area for the term to block off any real chance of taking advantage. The Tigers kicked four points while the Blues were unable to trouble the scorer in a dour start to the game.

The Tigers were able to open the game up in the second term with 150 game celebrant Danny Evans getting his team up and going from the middle while Xavier Craven and Josh Geurts were very busy keeping the footy in the Tigers front half.

Max Gillespie took a strong mark and goaled to get the scoring up and going with Corey Massingham also kicking a major as he got dangerous. The Tigers extended their lead with a three goal to one quarter and take what proved to be a winning lead in the game.

Ben Wilkinson was very strong in the ruck and around the ground as he accumulated possessions to press for a return to the senior team in an impressive performance.

The Tigers fought out a tight contest in the second half to extend their lead at the final siren to a twenty point win.

The Tigers defence was very composed as always with Andy Tydink, Campell Antonio and Fin Valentine in control while Danny Athanasellis was dynamic on the wing. Sam Craigie was busy in the middle while Jonte Dixon gave the Tigers plenty of drive on the other wing.

Andy Tydink clears the Tigers defence against the Hinterland Blues yesterday at Palmwoods.

The Tigers are now assured of a place in the finals for a remarkable twelfth consecutive season. They will play Springwood in the last round next week at the Den.

Scores: Mayne 6.8.44 d Hinterland 3.6.24
Goals: Corey Massingham 2, Xavier Craven, Danny Athanasellis, Max Gillespie, Alex Craigie 1.
Best: Danny Evans, Ben Wilkinson, Xavier Craven, Andy Tydink, Josh Geurts, Sam Craigie.

Thirds no match for Marcellin

The Thirds played the Marcellin Old Collegians on Friday night in the final round of the 2025 season at Hickey Park.

The Tigers were hopeful that they might be able to challenge the top of the table club who have been unbeaten this year.

It was not to be however despite a good start in the first term by the Tigers to stay within touch of the home side, but it was all one way traffic for the remainder of the game with Marcellin kicking away to a big win.

James Mulcahy battled grimly in the ruck all night while Jake Magill was constructive where he could be.

The Tigers will play the Aspley Hornets in a home semi final at the Den next Friday night and will hope to repeat their performance a week ago to progress further into the finals for the first time since 2017 in a historic effort.

Scores: Marcellin 16.12.108 d Mayne 2.4.16

Goals: Jake Magill, Rory O'Shea 1.

Best: James Mulcahy, Sam Shaw, Rhett Schlapoff, Darcy Foreman, Luke O'Shea, Jake Magill.

Strong win for Tigers in last round

The Mayne women's team headed up to Palmwoods to take on the Hinterland Blues chasing their first win of the season with their opponents in the same position.

Zoe Bourne kicks the Tigers into attack against the Hinterland Blues at Palmwoods yesterday.

It was also Dakodah Cott's fiftieth appearance for the Tigers. Dakodah was in the inaugural team for the Tigers and has been consistently one of the best players since her debut. She is only the third player to reach this milestone.

The Tigers have progressed significantly to play some very good football in the back half of the season resulting in a number of narrow losses.

The Tigers came out firing in the middle from the first ball up. Dakodah was winning the ruck with midfielder Zoe Bourne roving the footy, brushing past defenders, and delivering the ball to the forward line. Mayne kicked a couple of behinds but the forward line player Millie Young and Jorja Rolls applied tough forward pressure to lock the ball in and were rewarded when Dakodah broke through with a goal in a piece of broken play.

The second quarter was characterised by a tough battle in the midfield with some extra pressure on the Mayne back line. The back line led by Elvina O'Keefe and Amber Prout were exceptional at intercepting the ball and shutting down the Hinterland attack. Mykaela Rolls run and rebound off the half back flank was a massive highlight leading to a quick goal from Zoe Bourne.

Rhi Meehan looks to get the Tigers into attack against the Hinterland Blues at Palmwoods yesterday.

Mayne got into a rhythm in the third quarter inspired by a stirring half time speech from Angus Shaw. Excellent stoppage work and clean ball movement forward with strings of play involving Lizzie Delaney and Ash Matheson led to Dakodah Cott kicking her second goal for the day, followed by another to close out the quarter by Rhi Meehan.

Mayne continued to be dominant in the fourth quarter. Ruby Shinkfield spent time in the ruck and used her booming right foot to generate deep forward entries allowing Zoe and Rhi to add to their goal tallies.

The Mayne women's team have been determined all year and today was a great team effort and a well deserved win.

Scores: Mayne 6.7.43 d Hinterland 0.1.1

Goals: Dakodah Cott, Rhi Meehan, Zoe Bourne 2.

Best: Zoe Bourne, Dakodah Cott, Jorja Rolls, Mykaela Rolls, Rhi Meehan, Elvina O'Keefe.

Another milestone for Danny Evans

One of the most successful players of the modern era at the Tigers, Danny Evans played his 150th Reserve Grade game yesterday at Hinterland in yet another example of not only his consistent ability and loyalty, but also his resilience and endurance.

Fast Fifty for Dakodah

Dakodah Cott played her 50th game for Mayne yesterday.

Every week Dakodah puts in a massive effort in the ruck, often roves her own footy, and is the teams leading goal kicker. Dakodah is a vice captain in the team.

Coach Tom Hughes advised that the team appreciates her leadership in the team and especially with the junior players.

Dakodah was an inaugural member of the Tigers Womens team and is the third player to reach this milestone.

She polls very well in the team's best and fairest awards each year and will be certain to be up the leaderboard this season.

Volunteer of the Week

This volunteer of the week is Brent McArdle. Brent is the club secretary but also a valuable member of the Reserves playing group.

He is always ready to back up the team in whatever role they need him to play whether it is at full forward or as team runner.

Well done Brent.
